Please review the following with your child/children:

We have a good safety record, but in the event of an emergency, the Windsor family will not be held liable for injuries. Recognize that there are potential dangers around animals so please remind your children to listen to the leaders and obey the farm rules, for their safety and the animals'. Although all precautions will be taken to ensure your child's safety, there is the possibility of unforeseen injuries. We will contact you immediately if anything goes wrong. Your children's safety is of utmost importance to us!!
